4. Collection and Use of Non-Personal Information

We also collect non-personal information (data in a form that does not permit direct association with any specific individual). We may collect, use, transfer and disclose non-personal information for any purpose.

Given below are some examples of non-personal information that we collect and how we may use it:

- We may collect information such as industry, language, pin code, area code, unique device identifier, Location and the time zone where the Services are used so that we can better understand customer behavior and improve our Services.
- We also may collect information regarding customer activities on our Startup Buddy Website/Platform and from our affiliate businesses. This information may be aggregated and used to help us provide more useful information to our customers and to understand which parts of our Website and Services are of most interest. Such aggregated data shall be considered as non-personal information for the purposes of this Privacy Policy.
- Startup Buddy also may monitor customer traffic patterns and Website usage to help refine and improve the design and layout of the Startup Buddy Website/Platform as well as the User experience. As a result, Startup Buddy automatically tracks certain information about the Users. This information includes the Users' browser type, most recent URL and the next URL that the User visits, regardless of whether these URLs are on the Startup Buddy Platform or not. Startup Buddy will also track visitors' IP addresses. We use this information to, among other things, identify broad demographic trends that may be used to provide information tailored to users' interests. In the event we combine any non-personal information along with any personal information, the combined information will be treated as personal information for as long as it remains combined.

5. Information Sharing

We also use your information (and the information you provide to us) to perform and provide you with the Services and to communicate with you. We will not share personal information about you with other people or nonaffiliated companies, unless we have your permission, or under the following circumstances:

- We may share any of the information we gather about you with third party agents and service providers to facilitate the operation of the Services offered by Startup Buddy

Website/Platform, to provide the Startup Buddy Website/Platform and our Services or functions on our behalf and to perform related services (e.g., without limitation, maintenance services, database management, web analytics and improvement of the Service's features, or to process credit card payments), or to assist us in analyzing how the Startup Buddy Website/Platform and Services are used. These third parties may have access to personal information needed to perform their functions, but may not use it for other purposes.

- We will cooperate with government and law enforcement officials and private parties to enforce and comply with the law and will disclose any information about you to government or law enforcement officials or private parties as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate to respond to claims and legal process, to protect our property and rights or those of a third party, to protect the safety of the public or any person, or to prevent or stop any activity we may consider to be, or to pose a risk of being, illegal, unethical or legally actionable.
- We may share aggregated information that does not include personal information and we may otherwise disclose such information with third parties for industry analysis, demographic and analytical profiling and other purposes. Any aggregated information shared in these contexts will not contain your personal information.
- We may sell, transfer or otherwise share some or all of our assets, which could include your personal information, in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization or sale of assets or in the event of bankruptcy.

6. Cookies and Other Technologies

Startup Buddy Website/Platform may use "cookies" and other technologies such as pixel tags. These technologies help us better understand user behavior, tell us which parts of our Website/Platform users have visited and facilitate and measure the effectiveness of advertisements and web searches. A cookie is a small piece of information that a website can send to your browser which may then be stored on your computer's hard drive. It acts as an anonymous tag that identifies your computer, but not you personally. Cookies have the ability to store information about web pages viewed and the advertisements viewed or clicked. For registered customers, cookies can also save user information and screen preferences. We treat information collected by cookies and other technologies as non-personal information. However, to the extent that Internet Protocol (IP) addresses or similar identifiers are considered personal information by law, we also treat these identifiers as personal information.

We use cookies and other technologies to remember personal information when you use our Website, Services and applications. Our goal, in these cases, is to make your experience with Startup Buddy more convenient and personal. We gather some information automatically and store it in log files. This information includes Internet Protocol (IP) addresses, browser type and language, internet service provider (ISP), referring and exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp and click-stream data. We use this information to understand and analyze trends, to administer the Website, to learn about user behavior on the Website and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole.

Pixel tags, also known as a clear GIF or web beacon, are invisible tags placed on certain pages of our Website but not on your computer. When you access these pages, pixel tags generate a generic notice of that visit. They usually work in conjunction with cookies, registering when a particular computer visits a particular page. If you turn off cookies, the pixel tag will simply detect an anonymous website visit. Pixel tags enable us to send email messages in such a format that customer can read and they tell us whether the email has been opened by the customer. We may use this information to reduce or eliminate messages sent to customers.

If you want to disable cookies you can modify your settings on your browser in order to reject automatic acceptance of cookie. You can check with your provider to find out how to disable cookies. However, certain features of the Website may not be available once cookies are disabled.

7. Your ability to edit and delete your account information and preferences

You can edit your Account Information. We reserve the right to send you certain communications, such as service announcements and administrative messages and other communications relating to the Services.

8. Security

Startup Buddy Website/Platform has various electronic, procedural and physical security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse and alteration of information, or any accidental loss, destruction or damage to data. When you submit your information via Startup Buddy Website/Platform, your information is protected through security systems. There may be instances where we require proof of identity before disclosing any of your information to you. You agree to be responsible to protect the security of your username and password and other registration details, if any. We take reasonable security measures and procedures, and as specified by applicable law, to maintain appropriate physical, technical and administrative security to help prevent loss, misuse, or unauthorized access, disclosure or modification of Personal Information. While we take these reasonable efforts to safeguard your personal information, you acknowledge and agree that no system or transmission of data over the Internet or any other public network can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. You should take steps to protect against unauthorized access to your password, phone, and computer by, among other things, signing off after using a shared computer, choosing a robust password that nobody else knows or can easily guess, and keeping your log-in and password private. We are not responsible for the unauthorized use of your information or for any lost, stolen, compromised passwords, or for any activity on your Account via unauthorized password activity.

We may create links to other websites. You are requested to be aware that we do not provide any personally identifiable information to such other websites and that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of third parties. You agree that Startup Buddy cannot control these links and we shall not be responsible for any use of such websites. We encourage you to read the privacy statements on all such websites as their policies may differ from ours. You agree that we shall not be liable for any breach of your privacy of Personal Information or loss incurred by your use of these websites. We are not responsible for the privacy policies and/or practices on other sites. This Privacy Policy only governs information collected by us.

If you have any questions about the security at the Startup Buddy Website/Platform, you may contact us. Please be aware, however, that despite our efforts, no security measures are impenetrable.

9. Integrity and Retention of Data

Startup Buddy makes it easy for you to keep your personal information accurate, complete and up to date. We will retain your personal information and any data for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.
